Our experience with Sam was great. He and his team completed a two-storey side extension, a single-storey rear extension, and various internal alterations on our home. His stonework externally is second to none, blending seamlessly with the existing house. Communication was good throughout the project, and he managed to stay within our budget despite a challenging scope of work. Overall, we are delighted with the results and would recommend Sam to anyone looking to do similar work.

I could not be happier and would thoroughly recommend NH Construction. The level of skill and attention to detail is brilliant but i can also trust Sam to follow things through and find solutions whenever we hit an issue (which is not even of his making!). The team works incredibly hard, are reliable and personable; and also extremely thoughtful of, and courteous to, our neighbours on what is a tight town centre plot. We have had nothing but praise for them. Sam clearly puts his heart and soul into his work and obviously wants the customer to be completely satisfied. He has great contacts too which he sources on a timely basis to keep the project to schedule and progressing smoothly. We feel very lucky to have found NH Construction and would not hesitate to use them again in the future.

NH Construction based in Yorkshire laid a wonderful Italian porcelain patio, fencing and surrounding rendered planter for us. From quotation to completion we were professionally advised on products and suppliers. The patio runs the whole length of our home, making a seamless entrance from kitchen to garden. To say we are delighted with the end result is an understatement. Would highly recommend NH Construction. Shame we can't give an 11* rating! Sue and Trevor Brown

Sam and his team did a great job building an extension onto a stone walled house. The communication was good and we got regular updates throughout the job. We did encounter some problems (as always when working with an old property) but we were able to get these resolved and am very pleased with the works done.
